Eighteen hundred bags of sugar were received by the bark Mohican from the schooner Kauikaouli today. The Mohican moves to the railroad wharf to complete her cargo with Ewa sugar. Captain Saunders says he will probably sail tomorrow afternoon for San Francisco.

Two sailors of the Japanese man of war Naniwa had an unexpected bath in the bay yesterday. The little brown men were painting the side of the ship when a rope gave way or got loose some way and both went head first into the water. Sailors aboard ship quickly rescued their shipmates on whom they now have the laugh.

Early this morn, the bark Albert and barkentine Archer arrived. The vessels left San Francisco the same day, making Honolulu in 12½ days. Fair weather with favorable wind was had during the whole voyage. Besides full loads of general freight, both craft brought live stock on deck. The Archer brought 40 mules for Ewa plantation and the Albert a lot of cattle and horses for Isenberg. The Archer is consigned to Castle & Cooke and the Albert to H. Hackfeld & Co.

The bark C. D. Bryant is unloading guano at the railroad wharf for H. Hackfeld & Co. The Bryant entered port early yesterday afternoon, bringing 1200 tons of cargo. It took the bark ten days to make the passage to Laysan Island. After remaining there fourteen days to load guano, she set sail for the return trip, which was made in twenty days. On arrival at Laysan, a big swell was encountered, so that the vessel had to lie off and on for a few days. While at anchor the vessel rolled badly, keeping the decks wet most of the time. The Bryant has two more trips to the island to make.
